Story Summary: Harry, Hermione, and Ron have successfully graduated Hogwarts and have been appointed by Rufus Scrimgeour as Aurors-in-training. Harry's first mission finds him battling the Wizarding World's new "Dark Lord," one who he least expected, and one whose powers have grown beyond the realm of comprehension. Some of the most powerful wizards are being stripped of their most significant powers by an unknown force and someone from the "inside" is seeing to it that those who stand in the Dark Lord's way will meet their demise. Old lovers reunite, while another's heart is eternally shattered. And one who has long been presumed dead, returns from the grave in this startling follow-up to Harry Potter and the Battle of the Scourge.
