

Parallel Tracks to Decipher Harry Potter 7

An Essay Written by: P. Víctor M. Gómez A.

Parallel tracks to decipher Harry Potter 7:

We know that J.K.Rowling takes from some old writings inspiration and some ideas for its arguments of Harry Potter.

1)___el CALIZ that takes Dumbledore: In book 6 of Harry Potter; Dumbledore has from a drink or chalice before the final outcome until its death; In MT. 20, 22-23 Jesus Christ makes reference to the Chalice like Passion, Death and Resurrection; And in the last Supper he takes from the Chalice (Mt 26, 27-29) before his Passion, Death and Resurrection. To Christ he betrays two Disciples: PEDRO and JUDAS (first he is faithful and the second a traitor); To Dumbledore it betrays two disciples: DRACO and SNAPE (¿Which will be faithful and as a traitor?). To the third Day Christ it revives (¿ We will return to see Dumbledore ? Perhaps the picture of Dumbledore in the office of the Director, helped Harry Potter to find some object magical of Dumbledore that will be to him useful against Voldemor. If Dumbledor this dead, that does not mean that in book 7 some aid although of a different form cannot lend him.). After Pentecostés, the Disciples will accomplish a mission for which they prepared themselves next to Christ and guided by the Spirit Santo (¿ As it will be the protagonism of I exercise of Dumbledore and the order of the Fénix ?).

2)___Las Genealogies, Sirius Black: In books of Mateo and Lucas genealogies are mentioned (MT 1, 1 17 and LC 3, 23-38); In these genealogies (that express bonds), some names with a numerical theological purpose have been omitted. In the genealogy of the family of "Sirius Black" some name has been omitted that could hide some key hides that it would serve to open the mysterious relicario that nobody could open. Perhaps on the other hand, this key hides single could be used by some relative of the Black: When Sirius became godfather of Harry Potter, this made to Harry relative of the Black perhaps reason why it could open the relicario.

3)__ An Example of old writing inspiration is what it happens with the name of Voldemort to which the magicians do not dare to pronounce their name and they replace it by "The one that he cannot be named", the mortifagos call "tenebrous Sir"; Single Dumbledore and Harry call "Voldemort" (they do not fear to him). On this concept, J.K.Rowling takes some ideas in an old written practice and, but with a direction totally opposed to the one of the book of Harry Potter: OLD HEBREW THE PODIAN NOT TO PRONOUNCE NAME "YAHVE": When God appeared to Moisés (Cáp Exodus. 3), Moisés asked to him God which is its name and God said "Yahvé" that is translated by "I I AM" and who mean "IS the UNICO GOD". For the Hebrews, this name is so Santo, omnipotente, of as much reverence, and that also it express an intimate relation of God with the world and the men, who did not dare to pronounce the word "Yahvé"; but that when they read it, verbally replaced it by some of the following words: "Elohim", "Adonay" or "Edonay", "Shadday". For example, In you see pronounce "Yahvé", said "Elohim"... "Elohim", that means: "the strong and Powerful God". In Psalm 94 we found "Adonay" or "Edonay", that is "the Gentleman". In Gén. 17, 1 speech of God like "Shadday" that it means the God of the mountain. The prophet Isaiah (7, 14) speaks of "Emmanuel" that means "God with us".

4)__ Another example, this is the case of the "7": In writings of J.K.Rowling much is mentioned number "7" like perfect number; inclusively it has decided that their series of books of Harry Potter is 7. Of where it is inspired for this? The answer this in the Bible then particularly in the book of the "Apocalypse" (Revelations) is used many series of seven, for example: - the seven Churches (Apocalypse Chapters 2 and 3) - the seven Seals (AP 6 and 7) - the seven Trompetas (AP 8 to the 11) - the seven Glasses (AP 16) - Other examples are AP. 1,4; 1,12; 1,16; 4,5; 5,1. In the book of the Apocalypse each sign reveals a truth but I number seven in the Bible means PERFECCION, fullness, totality. On the symbolic number 7. Another reference: In Libro of Génesis 1.1 to the 2,1; that it makes Reference to the SEVEN days of the creation (days that do not talk about terrestrial days of 24 hours) y The 7 cameras or traps of the book first of Harry Potter who could contain tracks for other 7 books. The 7 in the Bible this present from the origins (Génesis) to the end (Apocalypse).

5)___ the number four: Universalidad, set of the bitted time, I number 4 means in the Bible the four cardinal points(N.;S.;E.;W.) All the points of the earth; The school of Hogwarts has four houses (Gryffindor, Slytherin, Hufflepuff y Ravenclaw) that represent the students of all the characteristics of the world.

. Other numbers in the Apocalypse that perhaps could use J.K.Rowling are: - the one: Primacía, exclusive feature, excellence. - Average or three and the average one: Limited time... - the six: imperfection. - The Twelve: The Town of God. - the thousands: Great number, multitude. - the 144,000 = 12 xs 12 xs 1000 Also there are colors: - White "Radiating": Divine World, Resurrection, Victory. - Black: It displeases, Hunger. - Red: Blood, violence. - Purple or scarlet: I release the brakes. - Green. Death. Also one resorts to animal symbols like the Lamb and the dragoon (Draco)... (That will be another subject) Another interesting data, is that J.K.Rowling names its spells with words translated to the "Latin", and that language (Language of the Roman empire), I use the Church by many centuries; Soon Science adopted that custom to give scientific names in Latin. Many modern authors imitate previous experiences, reason why it is necessary to arrive at the origins from the inspiration and the source from the symbols.

6)___ Another example is that a CURTAIN is mentioned in the book of Harry Potter that nobody had To cross: In the Old testament, When king Salomón I construct the Temple of Jerusalem; In the most central part of the temple, "Santa Santorum" (Santo of the Saints), I am placed the "Coffer of the Alliance" (the most sacred object of the antiquity). To the entrance of

"Santa Santorum" it was a "CURTAIN" to which nobody could cross, single the Extreme Priest and one you see the year.

With respect to "Santa Santorum" who tapeworm a VEIL to the entrance: The Extreme single Priest Could cross in the day of the celebration of "Yom Kippur" (Expiación). Crossing this curtain or veil would mean the DEATH for the violator.

The "Coffer of the Alliance" that was in "Santa Santorum"; It is a Relic that was hidden by the threat of the Asiria invasion. This Relic this still hides and nobody Knows where it is.....

Description of the "Coffer of Alianza":Exodo 25, 10-22;

Description of "Santa Santorum":1 Kings 6, 1-38; Peculiarly Santa Santorum was constructed in a period of "7" years.

In an inspiration (Of an old writing), the writer does not take all the ideas very textually; but single some ideas that soon adapt or recycle according to their imagination.

7)__ Another interesting parallel is the one that form between the protagonism of Lily, Harry and Voldemor (Represented by a serpent) with the passage of the Bible that speaks of enemistad of the woman and the son against hidden malignant intelligence in the serpent of the temptation. (Génesis 3, 14 - 15): Maria, Jesus and the Diablo / Lily, Harry and Voldemor.

On the other hand, the mother of Harry (Lily) SACRIFICES ITSELF and Harry (even young) wins to Voldemor Saving to the Magical world and the Muggle world (the totality of the world); but the definitive victory will be when the boy grows and wins definitively to Voldemord. The boy Jesus is born in Bethlehem and wins to which they wanted to kill it, to overcome them definitively in the Passion with a Sacrifice and to save to the totality of the world. If the previous parallels are possible; It could have a relation or future track with of the conflict between the Son and Woman persecuted by the Dragoon who are in Apocalypse 12, 4-6 and Apocalypse 12, 13-18: Son (Jesus); Woman (Maria, Church); Dragoon (Malignant)// Harry Potter; Watched of Lily, order of fénix, I exercise of Dumbledore; Voldemor.

8) Another interesting parallel, is that in the first book of Harry Potter it looks for to find the stone filosofal, whose property is to give life; And in the first book of the Bible it is spoken of the Tree of the Life (Génesis 2, 9).

9) El number 12: The 12 years of sirius it disappeared; The 12 of grimauld please: house of the Black, turned headquarters of the Order of the Fénix. - The Twelve: It means "the Town of God": Twelve tribes of Israel in the Old testament and Twelve Apostles in the beginnings of the Church in the New testament to which to them they are added the Disciples. - the thousands: Great number, multitude. - the 144,000 of the Apocalypse mean the Town of faithful and countless God = $12 \times 12 \times 1000$. To Sirius a criminal considered itself him but always he was faithful. And it is in the 12 of grimauld pleases where the disciples of Dumbledore meet to organize themselves against badly.
